

HIT THE ROAD WITH JENNI!

Living life her way...

Solo Woman RVer Jenni Edwards energizes and motivates every group who hears her speak.

“ You can do anything if you follow your dreams with faith and courage!”

Jenni Raney Edwards

Have you ever looked at a travel brochure with a picture of an RV wondered what it would be like to hit the road? Or maybe thought of re-writing the trajectory of your story? If so, climb in and take the adventure of a lifetime with Jenni as she bumps down one highway after another.

Author. Adventurer. RVer. Jenni Raney Edwards was a huge success in sales in corporate America, then designed and built Tiny Houses, including the first LEED Platinum Certified Tiny House in the world. With all her achievements she discovered something was missing in her life. Trading her Pradas for Flip-Flops, Jenni bought an RV and made the daring decision to hit the road alone, in search of the adventure of a lifetime, and boy did she find it!

Jenni is a motivational speaker who shares her captivating, and unforgettable stories, energizing and motivating every group who hears her speak. From corporate engagements to association conventions and charity events, she offers a diverse range of speaking experiences and talents. Funny, professional and inspirational, Jenni shares from personal experiences allowing her to relate directly to every audience.
